Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States.—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and the cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufacturers of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the gross impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented. Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

GREAT AND GOOD FERTILIZER,

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

SUPER PHOSPHATE

——The fair is upon us.

——The sporting men have arrived in force.

——The general elections three weeks from to-day.

——Revenue collections in this district yesterday amounted $9,958.97.

——We hear it reported that heavy frosts have done great damage to crops up west.

——Messrs. Wyckoff & Hudgings have entered one hundred coops of fine fowls for exhibition at the fair.

——Yesterday morning the heaviest frost of the season fell, and for the first time ice made its appearance.

——Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, R. A. M., will hold its monthly meeting at 7½ o'clock this evening at the Fisher Building.

——The Raleigh Light Artillery Company will hold an important business meeting this evening, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Mayor's office.

——Last winter's pants are being half-soled, and long tailed over-coats bought out to conceal the poverty which afflicts the land like a pestilence.

——We invite especial attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. M. Rosenbaum, clothier, who is well known for his fair dealings and accommodating manners.

——The first sheriff is still backward in coming forward. Last year he settled on the 28th of September and here it is the 17th of October this year and he hasn't settled yet.

——Col. D. M. Carter, of this city, addressed a large crowd in Newbern last Thursday night upon the issues of the day. The Nut Shell says the speech was well received by his hearers.

——The ordinance department at Washington have notified our State authorities of the shipment, by express, of a large amount of accoutrements for the use of militia volunteer companies.

——The semi-annual interest of the mortgage bonds of the Western North Carolina Railroad will be due at the treasury department November 1st. The amount of the bonds is $850 000.

Mr. Dick Weil, a former merchant of Raleigh, but more recently of Baltimore, has returned to this city, is now superintending Mr. L. Rosenthal's new clothing store, No. 54, Fayetteville Street.

——Sunday afternoon Rev. W. C. Norman, pastor of Person Street M. E. Church, baptized, by immersion, 5 persons at Walnut creek, 1½ mile southwest of the city, just beyond the insame asylum.

——The leaves are beginning to turn and to fall. There was a shower of them upon the ground after the frost of Sunday morning, and they have been falling ever since. These falling leaves are emblematic of—but, no; we will spare you the simile for this life—a serious business at best.

——There is less gab now and more treating than there was before the Indiana election. Those who believe that Tilden is going to be elected, and those who belive on the contrary that it is in Hayes' favor, are getting together and showing their faith by their little change. We heard yesterday a $500 bet in a certain place in the State between two prominent gentlemen of each party.

Registration in Fifth Ward.

It has been published that the registration books of the fifth ward are at Brown's store, and numbers of persons call there daily for the purpose of examining them. They are not there, but are at the store of Dr. W. M. Lowe, on Hillsboro street, where citizens of the ward are invited to call and inspect them.

THE STATE FAIR.

Preparations for It—A Glance Over the Grounds.

In company with Col. A. D. Jenkins we made a trip to the fair grounds yesterday afternoon. Entries continued throughout the whole of the day, and up to sunset people were busily engaged in getting the things in order for the exhibition which begins to-day. The scene on the grounds was one of great animation. Quite a number of persons were there, many of the articles were already in order, the blanketed horses were being walked to and fro, and there was everything to indicate that the fair of 1876 will [illegible] articles which are [illegible] ready in place. The picture and engraving department is very attractive. Mr C. C. Clawson contributes largely to this. The ladies' department presents many excellent features in the line of embroidery and other handiwork of the fair sex. The photographic department is well represented by Mr. J. W. Watson. The entries of stock amount to some 70 head of fine horses, besides many thorough bred cattle, sheep, hogs, &c. The display of chickens and ducks is superior to that of former years. The machinery and agricultural departments are fast filling up The show of sewing machines was never equalled here before. Many other things there are which cannot even now be touched upon, but which will be discanted upon at length at the proper time. By this morning we can tell what the probabilities are for a crowd. Even at this time there is quite a number of strangers in the city, ready for the opening of the exhibition.

We republish here the programme which was given to the public in Sunday's NEWS.

At 9 A. M., the procession will form in front of the Yarborough House. All citizens with vehicles are requested to join it. At 11, the annual address will be delivered by the Governor from the Grand Stand.

At 2 o'clock P. M., Purse $50. Running race, 1 mile dash, 3 or more to enter, 2 to start. First horse to receive $35; second horse to receive $10;—third horse to receive $5.

3 P. M., Parade of stock on the track.

The Colored T. and V. Club—Good Speeches.

Last evening the colored Tilden and Vance club of this city held their regular meeting at Metropolitan Hall. The attendance was larger than it ever has been before, for it was understood that a number of speeches were to be made. After the routine business was transacted Bryant Lunn, formerly of this city, but now of Durham, was introduced by the President of the club, Robert Thrower. He was suffering with sore throat and did not attempt a speech, only making a few remarks to his colored friends, advising them that it was to their interest to join in with the Democratic party in its effort to suppress corruption and obtain an honest administration of the government. Lunn was followed by Thrower in a speech of about 30 minutes duration. It was a speech full of good sound sense. His language may at times have been homely, but there was not a sentence uttered that did not address itself to the reason of his hearers.

John Stanford and other members of the club made short speeches, all of which elicited rounds of applause. The colored people present who are not members of the club, and not in sympathy with it, were orderly and gave the speakers a respectful attention.

The Court.

A sort of an informal court is in progress, notwithstanding the fact that Judge Watts adjourned it last Saturday. His Honor said that he would be back here to open court for one more day this week, and in the meanwhile submissions are being taken and the grand jury is still in session. Yesterday it returned fifteen bills, twelve of them true, after which it adjourned until to-day. It will continue its daily sessions until Thursday.

Fair Grounds Cars.

The cars for the fair grounds will leave Hargett street station every 15 minutes in the day during the progress of the fair, commencing at 9:30 A. M. and stopping about 6 P. M. This is identically the same arrangement that was in force during the fair of last year.

The Hunchback.

This five-act drama was presented at Tucker Hall last night by Boyd's Star Company, supporting Miss Florence Richmond. There was a good house, considering the fact that nothing whatever was known of the merits of the company. We think that we do not go beyond the bounds of truth in saying that the rendition of the play was favorably received by the cultivated audience. To our mind the Hunchback is possessed of but little genuine merit; there are in it but few striking situations, and no field is given for the display of histrionic ability, except in the leading part. This was taken by Miss Richmond. As Julia she sustained herself well [illegible] this character, and Miss Richmond brought them out well. At times she gave evidence of dramatic talent of a high order. She is a graceful and handsome woman, and this went far toward the accomplishment of her success as Julia.

Mr. Jas. Harrison made an excellent Master Walter. He was well up to the character, and none of the company played better. The Sir Thomas Clifford of Mr. Sheridan was fine, and the Master Modus of Mr. Davidson was a very clever piece of acting. We did not like Mrs. Drew's Helen at all. She is perhaps better in other characters. The play dragged in the beginning, but from the end of the second scene, passed off well. The company is worth seeing. There is some good talent in it, and we doubt not that it will draw well from this time until the close of the week. To-night it gives us Lost in London, which will probably be witnessed by a large crowd.

A Word in our Own Behalf.

This week, while many of our friends from different parts of the State are in the city, is an excellent time for them to subscribe for the Daily and Weekly NEWS. It is a paper devoted to the prosperity of the people, and will in the future, as in the past, be found in the van of the great battle for popular rights. It claims to be essentially a NEWSpaper, and a constant reader of it will find himself always well posted upon the news of the State and world, and not only so, but in possession of all the leading points which go to make up the present great contest. It is a paper than which none in the country is more firmly established, and it is daily taking fresh hold among the people. The rapid increase in its circulation during the present campaign, gives us fresh courage for renewed exertions, and we hope to make the NEWS a better and still better paper, and to the seconding of these efforts call upon the people of our State for their subscriptions, promising them full value for their money, and still better work in behalf of the great cause the success of which every patriot has now so near to his heart.

Personal.

W. F. Shultz, Esq., of Salem, is again on hand with a large number of articles for exhibition at our fair. Mr. Shultz has made exhibitions at every fair since the organization of the Agricultural Society.

We are glad to learn that Major W. W. Vass has so far recovered as to be able to leave his bed.

Col Thos. M. Holt, of Alamance, the President of the State Agricultural Society, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon.

Capt. A. B. Andrews, Superintendent of the North Carolina Railroad, arrived home Sunday evening from his centennial trip.

Col. L. C. Edwards, of Oxford, is registered at the Yarborough House.

Mr. O. A. Smith, of Durham, the famous house movist, is in the city.

D. K. Osbourn & Co.

We are indebted to this enterprising Baltimore firm of general stationers and paper dealers, for a case of very handsome memorandum books. This firm is not surpassed by any in its line in the country. They do a fine business and always guarantee satisfaction. They are located on German street, between Charles and Light streets. We recommend them to Southern dealers who may visit Baltimore in quest of articles in their line of business.

Revival Suspended.

The protracted meeting at Edenton Street M. E. Church has been suspended for the present, not, however, on account of any lack of interest in the services. Sunday night seven penitents presented themselves at the altar for prayer, and special services for these will be held at different times until the meeting is resumed. Since the revival began, there have been twenty accessions to the church and more are expected.

Money is no object with A. C. Sanders & Co. They are now paying the highest prices for cotton and selling groceries so cheap that anybody can buy them.

Send your job work to the NEWS office, where it will be neatly, cheaply and promptly executed.

GREENSBORO.

The Discussion at Settle's Home—All for Vance as Usual—About 2,000 People Present—Flags, Flowers and Females.

[Special correspondence to Raleigh News.]

Saturday, Oct. 14th 1876.

In consequence of this being Judge Settle's home no public demonstration was made. Although Governor Vance was not expected until this morning there were about 200 of his friends at the depot to welcome him. Numerous friends called upon him during the evening. This morning, after breakfast, Vance walked out on the street when the hands-shaking commenced.

[illegible] crowd that assembled at

was not as large as it otherwise would have been. Still about 2,000 people were present, about one-eighth of whom were negroes. The ladies of Greensboro were out in full force and were all for Vance and against civil rights.

Fair hands decorated the stand in a beautiful and artistic manner.—There were graceful draperies of the national colors and a profusion of fragrant and beautiful flowers.

Judge Settle called with his own carriage for Governor Vance and the two rode together, escorted by the Greensboro cornet band, to the place of speaking. It was Gov. Vance's day for opening the discussion. Of course he carried the audience with him. In speaking of the oppressions of the Republican party, and what they were now doing in the South to oppress the white people of North and South Carolina, he explained in a forcible manner the expected workings of to the jackleg marshals, and that Gov. Chamberlain was now playing the same despicable game in South Carolina that Gov. Holden did in this State. From the expression and smiles upon the faces of the audience it was evident that they took in every word, and fully appreciated as true every sentence Gov. Vance gave utterance to.

Judge Settle came to the stand with applause from his main supporters, the negroes. He was speaking of the losses of North Carolina, and was saying that Jonathan Worth had said——when the great and uncontrolable enthusiasm of his truly loyal broke out in the WRONG PLACE.

The Judge smiled and requested his "never meets" and loyals to hold in and please not enthuse any more. The Judge has got a book which, he says, contains the names of thousands of Democrats who have stolen, but in no way can Gov. Vance prevail upon him to name a single one. He says he could tell, but he has no time to name them. The Judge was severe upon Democratic speakers and newspapers. He claimed that he did not read from untrue reports in regard to the finances of the country as did these grog-shop politicians.

There were no new developments, aside from those already presented, in either speech. Gov. Vance in his rejoinder was as pithy as usual and swept away all of Judge Settle's arguments. The crowd was perfectly orderly and paid the closest attention to both speeches. Gov. Vance received his usual quantity of bouquets from the ladies.

C.

Fraudulent Votes.

In a letter to the Chairman of the State Executive Committee, a prominent gentleman of Mecklenburg county writes: "In one township one hundred and twenty-five negroes registered and voted at the last election who cannot be found now, nor intelligently accounted for."

The time for the correction of these abuses has already been too long delayed. Let our friends throughout the State see to it that the registration books are thoroughly examined and carefully watched until the day of election. The large number of young men who are to cast their maiden vote in this election should also be looked after and urged to register at once. Let us leave nothing undone to make our victory overwhelming.

Into the Penitentiary.

Yesterday morning four negroes, convicted at the Superior Court of this county, last week, were conveyed to the penitentiary where they were imprisoned to serve terms of five years each for larceny. The names of the convicts are: William Robinson, George Williams, Hardy Bunn and John Jones. The three first named have previous to this time served terms of two years each in the penitentiary for different offences, and one, the last named, is the only one new in the business.

There are now in the county jail ten prisoners; seven or eight of these will go to the work-house this morning, when the county castle will become rather lonely to the one or two inmates who remain.

FOWLE AT WILSON,

A Large Crowd and Great Speech. Grand Jollification.

[Special Dispatch to the Daily News.]

WILSON, Oct. 16, 1876.

There was a very large crowd in this town to-day, from this and adjacent counties to, hear Hon. D. G. Fowle. The speech was emphatically a great one. The crowd grew wild with enthusiasm, and its effect will be felt at the day of election to such an extent as to swell the Democratic majority. This effort of Judge Fowle's was in every way an able one, and the harvest from the good seed sown will be a plentiful one. Old Wilson will come [illegible]

Indiana and West Virginia Victory in Jollification.

[Special correspondence to Raleigh News.]

WINSTON, Oct. 14th 1876.

The largest crowd that has assembled in Winston, since the discussion between Gov. Vance and Judge Settle in August, assembled last night to unite in a grand jollification meeting over the result of the recent elections in Indiana and West Virginia. A large bonfire was lighted, and whilst the flames were ascending fifty or seventy-five feet into the air, the firing of canon was commenced, and were fired at intervals of five minutes for an hour, resounding through the valleys and hills that surround Salem and Winston. Farmers, merchants, workingmen, mechanics, lawyers and doctors all turned out, and such demonstrations and enthusiasm have rarely been witnessed in any community. After the firing of the canon had subsided, eloquent and enthusiastic speeches were made by Messrs. David Leach, C. B. Watson and J. C. Buxton.—Many Republicans were there, and negroes hurrahed for Vance and Indiana.

Count Forsythe among the Democratic counties that will send members to the Legislature and give Vance a handsome majority. P.

Complaints Filed.

A. W. Tourgee yesterday filed his complaint in the actions recently brought by himself against the NEWS Publishing Company. In the first case he sues for $10,000 damages done his character by the charge that he was an ex-convict from the Ohio penitentiary; in the second case he sues for $20,000 on account of the NEWS quoting from Gen. D. H. Hill, that he did not believe that Tourgee had escaped from the penitentiary, but believed he had served out his time fully and honestly.

$30,000 for defamation of Tourgee's character! If 15 cents' worth of character would keep him out of the penitentiary, he would have on a striped suit before he could say "God save the State!"

Hops This Week.

A series of brilliant hops will be given in this city this week by the different dance clubs. To-night the Eclectic German Club gives a German at the National Hotel; to-morrow night the Monogram Club gives a hop at the Yarborough House, and Friday night the Oak City Pleasure Club at the National. These dances are arranged especially for the young ladies and young gentlemen from abroad, who are visiting at the fair, and as elaborate preparations have been made for them, we do not doubt that they will be occasions of great enjoyment, and that they will be of such brilliancy as to reflect the highest credit upon the capital city of the State.

The Races To-day.

The best display of trotting stock we have ever had may be seen at the fair grounds. Lovers of good races will be gratified this week. The programme for to-day is good, and there are entries enough to make it very attractive. Go to the races to-day to enjoy a pleasant time. Many thanks are due to those of our citizens and to the fair ladies of Raleigh for coming up so nobly to the work yesterday. Let it go on to-day to complete the triumph, as we are already satisfied it will do.

We congratulate the Executive Committee and the officers on the brilliant prospect before them.

The Churches, Sunday.

Sunday was a glorious autumn day. The sun was bright and genial, the air was cool and bracing, and, all in all, it was such a day as we read of in novels, when the frost king has touched the trees and given to the leaves a tinge of nature's own creation; when the earth is more beautiful and more attractive than at any other season, and when mankin feels more of the delights of life than possess him at other times. The weather bears directly upon the outward piety of us all, and the weather of Sunday being all that could have been desired, all the churches were well filled with [illegible] worshippers.

If you want to feel well and lively, use Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills. Your druggists sell them.

"The Republicans had much to do with that crime."—Gov. Holden to Rev. C. T. Bailey.

"For murder, though it have no tongue, will speak, with most miraculous organ."—Shakspeare.

JUDGE MACKEY, of the Sixth Circuit Court of South Carolina, Republican, pronounces Taft's order unconstitutional and oppressive in permitting deputy Marshals to be the sole tribunals of law and to suspend the habeas corpus. This is another fact to show that the honest, liberty-loving wing of the Republican party are breaking away from it, on account of its repeated and most outrageous aggressions upon the Constitution. Is it safe—we speak to honest and thoughtful Republicans—to entrust our rights and liberties, our property, our lives in the hands of a party that has, with a stroke of the pen, invested thousands of petty officials over the South with power to defy our judicial authorities, override all our laws, and trample our writs of habeas corpus under foot as the cut-throat Kirk did six years ago?

THE STATE FAIR.

The attempt to hold a fair amid the excitements of a hot National and State campaign, and at a time when the centennial exposition constitutes the centre of attraction to all pleasure-seekers and exhibitors, is one of those rare efforts which, for its moral heroism alone, if for nothing else, merits admiration and should call forth practical, earnest support, whatever may be the result of the undertaking. The American people, and especially North Carolinians, are ever ready to applaud displays of pluck and energy; and we should not, in this instance, withhold substantial evidences of our appreciation of the spirit, enterprise and determination shown by the Executive Committee of the N. C. State Agricultural Society.

In the face of numerous difficulties; in spite of various discouragements; undeterred by the disheartening cry of "hard times," the committee have labored with ceaseless efforts to hold a fair worthy of the State and creditable to the institution. With what success they will meet, remains yet [illegible] At present we only have been made, and that the indications are good for a fine attendance of visitors during the week. We think it will compare favorably with former exhibitions, and leave the society bright with the hope of clearing away the difficulties that embarrass it, and holding a grand and thoroughly successful exhibition a year hence, when political excitement will have died out and the overwhelming world's fair at Philadelphia fallen back among the effete things of the past.

By having an exposition this year, the chain of fairs is kept unbroken; the annual meeting of the Society takes place, as usual; and the confidence of the public in the permanence of this institution is strengthened. Nothing should be left undone which tends to hold this Society together. It is a source of benefit to the State, which should never be dispensed with. In what other way could the masses of the people be brought together, year after year? Cease to have State expositions of this character, and how will the men of the east come in social contact with the men of the west? How can the hidden wealth of the State be brought to light, and made known to the world, except through the instrumentality of annual fairs? And without these expositions of the products of our farms and workshops, and of the undeveloped resources of our fields, and forests and mines, how can we hope to see the spirit of enterprise and emulation infused into the population of North Carolina?

Everything which helps on towards advertising the riches of our fields, the treasures of our mines, the wealth of our unused forests, should be encouraged; and no means at hand for fostering and improving the agricultural interests of our country, should be disregarded by any one who has the good of his native land at heart. Whatever criticisms cavillers may make upon the past management of the Society; whatever disappointments it may have met with; whatever blunders it may have committed; whatever its present financial condition, whether good or bad, it is now doing a good part in the advancement of the material interests of North Carolina, and it deserves the liberal encouragement and support of the public.

THE HOLDEN CONFESSION—CUMULATIVE TESTIMONY.

We print elsewhere this morning an article from the Milton Chronicle, which throws new light upon the Stephens murder and Holden's confession. Daniel Johnson, a colored man, and "the great Mogul of the Radical party in Caswell county," said two weeks before the murder of Stephens that he had had an interview with Gov. Holden at Raleigh, and that the Governor had remarked that Stephens would ruin the party, and "the party must get rid of him."

The Tobacco Plant states that two of Stephens' brothers, now living at Durham, express the opinion that the Republicans assassinated their brother. They have all along believed it. They have their reasons for this belief.

It will be remembered, too, that the late E. B. Holden, a brother of the Governor, was of the opinion that the murder was committed by men of Stephens' own political faith.

Thus we have it, that the brothers of the murdered man, and the brother of the man who made the confession to Rev. Mr. Bailey, express the same opinions about the foul deed. In the face of such facts, coupled with others pointing in the same direction, we are forced to the conclusion that Gov. Holden told the truth when he confessed that "the Republicans had much to do with that crime." We cannot escape this conclusion. The logic of facts forms a chain which binds the mind down to this belief, in spite of itself.

Our view is not changed in the least by Gov. Holden's denial; that we expected, as an admission that he made to Rev. Mr. Bailey the statement which he is alleged to have made, would damn him forever, and subject him, in all probability, to the action of the grand jury whose duty it is to drag to light the authors, aiders and abettors, of criminal deeds. Let him deny, it is nothing; the idle wind is not more ineffective. Nothing that emanates from the pen which signed away the people's treasure for bribe-money, and which now fills the columns of a newspaper daily with the vilest slanders and the most unblushing falsehoods, can operate in the least degree to shake the confidence of the public in the unimpeached and unimpeachable veracity of so pure and unsullied a minister of the gospel as Rev. C. T. Bailey.

LIGHTEN YOUR TAXES.

Taxation is one of the heaviest burdens our people have to bear. Every man who has his own or his country's interest at heart should shape his political course in these hard times steadily towards economy in the administration of the government, that the burden of taxation may be lightened.

All the work done and votes cast for the Constitutional Amendments, is in this direction. The difference in the expense under our present constitution and the constitution as proposed to be amended, it is thought, will be as follows:

	Under Present Constitution	Under Amended.
Gen. As'bly per an'm,	$45,000	$22,320
Sup. Court Judges,	12,500	7,500
Co. Go't Co. Treas'r,	15,000	[illegible]
Total,	$371,000	$102,320

The saving in money will aggregate about one hundred and seventy thousand dollars ($170,000 00) per annum, under the Democratic Constitution. That sum lifted from the tax-payers' shoulders would lighten their burdens very much. It is certainly not "to be sneezed at."

THE Grand Juries of South Carolina, under instructions from Republican Judges, are presenting Governor Chamberlain for defaming the State in his published letters and proclamations. We could wish for no higher evidence of the utter contempt into which the government of our sister State has fallen than this; and we could want no better evidence of the fact that the Southern Republican party is an enemy of the most unscrupulous and malignant nature, to our people and to all their best interests. They steal our substance, then abuse us for getting mad about it.

READ the address of the Mechanics and Workingmen's Tilden and Vance Club, which we print elsewhere today. It is an earnest, powerful appeal to their brethren throughout the State for the cause of reform and reconciliation. It has the ring of the true metal, and will be effective with all who read it thoughtfully.

THE most earnest hope of our eastern friends is that the work of the Convention be ratified. Will our friends in the west disappoint them?

STATE CANVASS.

Pitt county is pledged for a Vance majority of 250.

The canvass of the county candidates has commenced in all of the counties.

Hon. M. W. Ransom spoke to a very large and enthusiastic crowd at Lexington yesterday.

A colored man writes from Teisnot to the Wilmington Star, renouncing the Republican party.

Everybody is now asking, who killed Stephens? and the universal reply is, Holden and his gang.

Pitt county is to have a grand time to-day. Gen. J. M. Leach, Capt. Jarvis and H. C. Lathams, Esq., will speak.

Next Monday week Hon. D. G. Fowle speaks in Greenville. A Tremendous rally of Democrats is expected.

John C. Scarborough, Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is making a very effective canvass in the west.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, a Republican paper, says "the majority in Ohio is paltry to what it should have been, and the possibilty of no majority in Indiana is a warning which must be heeded." It declares that that the Presidential contest is "to be fought out to a conclusion not in the South or West, but in the East, and it is to the East we must look for the election of Mr. Hayes." It adds: "There must be real majorities if Mr. Hayes instead of Mr. Tilden is to be the next President of the United States. Will the Republican leaders go to work?"

In comparing the results of the preliminary Presidential fight of 1875 with those of last Tuesday the Baltimore Sun says: Indeed the period prior to the Presidential campaign of 1872 was one of general Democratic defeat. North Carolina in August of that year went Republican and in the same month in West Virginia an independent candidate for Governor was elected over the regular Democratic nominee. In October of that year Ohio, as also Pennsylvania, both gave large Republican majorities in their State elections. After the result in North Carolina in 1872 the canvass on the part of the Democrats weakened, and the results in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana demonstrating prospectively Greeley's weakness in the coming Presidential contes, so demoralized the democracy that even Virginia was carried for Grant. Now the Democrats emerge from the State contests with much more of victory than has been their fortune during any Presidential contest since the war. In addition to Indiana and West Virginia they have recently carried Arkansas, Alabama, Kentucky, Oregon, Georgia and Delaware, with heavy gains in the town elections in Connecticut over last year's Democratic majority. Such is the status for the start in the Presidential election in 1876.

NORTH CAROLINA.

A past-office has been established at Spring Hope, Nash county.

The Lexington Tilden and Vance club numbers several hundred.

Col. Robt. Strange, of Wilmington, will speak at Goldsboro on the 24th.

The Advance claims that as a cotton market Wilson is about the fourth town in the State.

J. J. Perkins resigned the mayoralty of Greenville and John Worsley has been chosen in his stead.

Northern Radical papers take their Congressional gains in Ohio and Indiana as "crumbs of comfort."

Mr. Stevenson Page is Wilson county's oldest inhabitant. He is 89 years of age and will vote for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

The ladies of Wilmington will present a $90 flag to the Wilmington Light Infantry, upon the eve of their departure for the State Fair.

Rev. Dr. Deems, postor of the church of the Strangers of New York city, has been invited to deliver the annual address before the Roanoke Agricultural [illegible] of October.

The Weldon News judges from the enormous quantity of cotton that has been shipped through that place thus early, that the crop is so large that before it is all sent into market it will not be worth more than six or eight cents.

Sketch of Gen. Newton.

Gen. John Newton, the hero of the great engineering feat at Hell Gate, was born in Virginia about the year 1823, and graduated at the West Point Military Academy in 1842. From the year 1843 until 1846 he was assistant professor of engineering at west Point. In 1852 he was made a first Lieutenant; in July, 1856, captain; in August, 1861, major; in September, 1861, brigadier general of volunteers; in March, 1763 major general of volunteers, and in December, 1865 major general of volunteers serving serving with distinction in the late war rising to the command of a Federal army corps. He was commander of the district of Key West and Tortugas from October 1864, to June 1865. For his services at Peach Tree Creek and Altanta he was breveted brigadier general, and at the close of the war was breveted major general United States army for gallant and meritorious services. During the last six years Gen. Newton has to the mind of the American public been identified with the great works at Hell Gate.

ADDRESS OF THE MECHANIC'S TILDEN AND VANCE CLUB

OF RALEIGH,

To the Mechanics of N. C.

The members of the Mechanic's Tilden and Vance Club of the city of Raleigh call upon their brother mechanics throughout North Carolina to rally in the cause of reform and honest government. Upon no class of our people has the mal administration of the Republican party in Federal, State and Municipal affairs fallen with greater severity than upon ourselves. Throughout the whole land our industries are prostrate. Capital is triumphant, labor is begging. The rich are becoming richer, the poor, poorer. The masses of our people must have relief and that quickly.

For eight long years the Republican party has been a party of promises never fulfilled.

It has betrayed every trust committed to it.

It has proven false to every pledge of amendment and reform.

It has debauched the civil service.

It has established and maintains an oligarchy of office-holders, who fatten upon pillage.

It has wrecked the prosperity of the people.

It has robbed you and us.

It has created and cherishes corrupt rings of all kinds.

It has subordinated the welfare of the masses to the interests of the few.

It has throttled labor.

It has paralyzed business.

It has poisoned the well-springs of morals.

It has stifled civil liberty, and now it seeks, with an assurance that is fearful, to blind the eyes of the people to its dark record by flaunting in their faces the "bloody shirt."

It seeks to evade the stern issues of the hour by opening anew the wounds of the civil war.

The question for us to consider in this crisis is: will the triumph of this party conduce to our material prosperity? Or will not a change of administration work beneficially to the advantage of the laboring classes?

Our individual prosperity depends solely upon the prosperity of the communities in which we live. If business is stagnant, we suffer. If enterprise languishes, we feel the ill effects.

The present deplorable condition of affairs is undeniable. We think that the responsibility of the Republican party for the same is equally undeniable. It has controlled the policy and patronage of the National and State governments for many years. Since 1868 the prosperity of the nation has been retrograding until the people are well nigh bankrupt. For instance, the great staple of this section of the country, cotton, is now selling in this city for less than the cost of its production. The Republican party cannot shirk the responsibility for that wide-spread prostration of all mechanical and industrial interests that pervades the land. Will it alter the situation to grant it a further lease of power? We think not. The venal and unscrupulous men who have shaped its conducts for the past few years are still at its helm and are guiding its course. The honest men in its ranks are overridden and ostracised. Chandler is in command and Bristow is in disgrace. We can hope for no change if it is successful and as a consequence we can expect no lifting of the pall that hangs black and dismal, over the industries of the nation. On the contrary, the admirable declaration of principles enunciated in the platform of the National Democratic Convention at St. Louis, commends itself to the approval of every thoughtful and honest man. The nominee for President is Samuel J. Tilden, of New York. His record and his character also commend themselves to the approval of every thoughtful and honest man. He has proven his faith by his works. To no man are the people of his native State more indebted for their deliverance from a corrupt judiciary, and for the destruction of the infamous Tweed ring and the equally infamous canal ring. He has never hesitated to declare war against corruption within his own party, and having declared war to fight until victory was obtained. And he has within the last twelve months reduced the taxes of the State of New York nearly fifty per cent.

The record of the Democratic party in the present National House of Representatives, where for the first time in fifteen years it is in a majority, also commends itself to the approval of every thoughtful and honest man.

It has dabbled in no jobs.

It has fostered no rings.

It has exposed corruption.

It has guarded the national treasury.

It has hurled a corrupt Secretary of War in disgrace from the cabinet.

It has cleansed the foreign service of a minister whose character was a shame to America and an insult to England.

It has protected the constitution.

It has not shielded thieves.

It has done all in its power to purify the civil service. And above all it has reduced the annual expenses of the government nearly $50,000,000.

The record of the Democratic party wherever it has had control of our county governments, also commends itself to the approval of every thoughtful and honest man. In all such, economy has succeeded extravagance and taxation has been reduced. In this county for the first time since 1867, its finances are in a healthy condition, its affairs are honestly administered and county scrip is at par in the market.

We think that the salvation of the people from ruin depends upon the success of the Democratic party. We are willing to trust it. We believe that its accession to power both in the Nation and the State will revive our drooping industries and bring peace and prosperity to the country. We believe that a change of administration will be of incalculable benefit to us. We believe that it is both our duty and our interest to aid in placing the reins of government in the hands of honest men. We ask you to unite with us in the conflict. The stakes are great and the contest is bitter. But we believe that whenever the great laboring classes of our people unite for self-protection that victory is assured.

Indiana and West Virginia have spoken for the right. Already we hear the pæans of victory. We invoke the mechanics and laboring men of this great State to press forward, with that magic touch of elbow that inspires and strengthens, in the contest for peace, prosperity and governmental reform.

Let us not be found in the rear, in this day of the Nation's peril.

Remember the tax you pay on every garment you wear—almost on every morsel you eat. The tax on your cottage—the home you have struggled so hard to keep from the tax collector's hammer. Remember the thousands of our fellow laborers out of employment to-day, and thousands of others working for a mere pittance, and join us in this struggle for freedom.

In behalf or two hundred and seven mechanic voters of the city of Raleigh. Yours, fraternally,

HOLDEN'S CONFESSION.

Evidence from Daniel Johnson, Colored—"The Party Must Get Rid of Stephens"—What Stephens' Brother Thinks About It.

[Milton Chronicle, Oct. 11.]

Gov. Holden is out in a long card in which he denies every material point set forth in the card of the Rev. Mr. Bailey. This springs a question of veracity between those two gentlemen. And now the question with the "jury" is, which one is to be believed? Mr. Bailey is a Baptist minister of as high character as can be found in the United States; he has no political aspirations; no motive on God's earth to misrepresent Gov. Holden; never gets drunk and never goes crazy. Would such a man deliberately belie Mr. Holden? Would he slander his brother and friend in the same church? Would he make up a lie on Mr. Holden?—Would he aver that Mr. Holden told him this and that when he did not? The idea that he would is preposterous and absurd. And then do it without a motive! for none—none had he on earth.

And now let us consider Gov. Holden:

* * * * * * * *

Let it not be forgotten that his confession of the facts as stated by Mr. Bailey would ruin him and damn his party, and hence no one supposed that he would admit the charges. When a man is arraigned at the bar for high crime he enters the plea of not guilty, and Gov. Holden may be availing himself of the criminal's plea or he may not. Be this as it may, he is known as a political partizan and a cunning trader and trafficer in political legerdemain, and has much to lose by "confessing."

While on the subject of "who killed Stephens," we will remark in this connection that Daniel Johnson, a colored man and a leading radical at Yanceyville, will testify that about two weeks prior to the murder of Stephens he held an interview with Gov. Holden in Raleigh—that the Gov. complained to him of Stephens, and told Daniel that "the party must get rid of Stephens." Daniel mentioned this to several persons in Yanceyville, on his return home from Raleigh, and if proof be wanting it can be had.

In addition, Stephens has two brothers living in Durham who (the Tobacco Plant says) have always thought their brother was assassinated by Radicals. We do not make this charge, but the Plant says that Stephens' brother, at Durham have been, and are now of the opinion that the Radical party assassinated their brother, and for this opinion they have their reasons.

The Profligate Waste of Public Lands.

Reform is necessary to put a stop to the profligate waste of public lands and their diversion from actual settlers by the party in power, which has so squandered 200 millions of acres upon railroads alone, and out of more than thrice that aggregate has disposed of less than a sixth directly to tillers of the soil.—[St. Louis Platform.

"For the Blood is the Life."

See Deuteronomy, xii: 23. The blood being the source from which the system is built up, and from which we derive our mental as well as physical capabilities, how important that it should be kept pure! If it contain vile festering poisons, all organic functions become enfeebled. Settling upon important organs, as the lungs, liver, and kidneys, the effect is most disastrous. Hence it behooves all to keep their blood in a perfectly healthy condition, and more especially does this apply at this particular season of the year than at any other. No matter what the exciting cause may be, the real cause of a large proportion of all diseases is bad blood. Now, Dr. Pierce does not wish to place his Golden Medical Discovery in the catalogue of quack patent nostrums, by recommending it to cure every disease, nor does he so recommend it; on the contrary, there are hundreds of diseases that he acknowledges it will not cure; but what he does claim is this, that there is but one form of blood disease that it will not cure, and that disease is cancer. He does not recommend his Discovery for that disease, yet he knows it to be the most searching blood cleanser yet discovered, and that it will free the blood and system of all other blood-poisons, be they animal, vegetable, or mineral. The Golden Medical Discovery is warranted by him to cure the worst forms of Skin Diseases, as all forms of Blotches, Pimples, and Eruptions; also all Grandular Swellings, and the worst form of Scrofulous and Ulcerated Sores of the Neck, Legs, or other parts, and all Scrofulous Diseases of the Bones, as White Swellings Fever Sores, Hip-joint and Spinal Disease,—all of which belong to Scrofulous diseases.

CONFIRMED. — HIP JOINT DISEASE CURED.

Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR—My wife first became lame nine years ago. Swellings would appear and disappear on her hip, and she was gradually becoming reduced, and her whole system rotten with disease. In 1871, a swelling broke on her hip, discharging large quantities, and since that time there are several openings. Have had five doctors, at an expense of $125, who say nothing will do any good but a surgical operation.

July 16, 1873, he writes thus: My wife has certainly received a great benefit from the use of your Discovery, for she was not able to get off the bed and was not expected to live a week when she commenced using it, a year ago. She has been doing most of her work for over six months. Has used twenty bottles, and still using it. Her recovery is considered as almost a miracle, and we attribute it all to the use of your valuable medicine. I can cheerfully recommend it as a blood-purifier and strength-restorer. J. M. ROBINSON.

Golden Medical Discovery is sold by Druggists.

WASHINGTON.

Ice in the Gutter--The Chronicle Abuses The Army and Irishmen.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Ice in the gutters this morning.

The Chronicle says editorially: "When Southern people cry out about the oppression of the federal troops they prove themselves hypocrites. Every posted man knows that the rank and file of the army is recruited from the riff-raff of the Democracy and their sympathies would not permit them to abuse the poor Southerners. Sergeant Patrick O'Donahue and Corporal McFlanagan, of the regular army, would much sooner assist the Ku Klux in abusing negroes than in protecting them from the outrageous treatment of disaffected and unreconstructed rebels."

NEW YORK.

The Old Hulks Holds Together--A Steamer Seized for Taxes.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The report of Vanderbilt's death is ascertained to be untrue. The dispatch announcing it came from New York Hotel and was signed Rev. Chas. F. Deems. Vanderbilt is as well as usual.

The Pacific mail company's steamer 'Colon" was seized this morning at her dock by the city marshal for $180,000 taxes due the city for 1874.

A rumor was circulated throughout the city this morning to the effect that Vanderbilt was dead, but on inquiry at his residence it was found that he is improving instead of failing. He was much better than he was last night at 12 o'clock. The rumor was probably started for stock jobbing purposes.

FOREIGN.

More Eastern Bosh--Russia Arrogant and Turkey Humble.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Times in a grave article on the situation concludes that the Turkish rulers have, we fear, determined not to yield much more and Russia may soon be at the mercy of the storm she has raised. It is not too late to keep Russia back. If any country can thus save the world from a tremendous war it is Germany.

The Standard's Vienna dispatch says the Turkish statesmen desire peace but not with dishonor. A majority agree that if foreign pressure becomes intolerable they might prefer separate terms with Russia.

The Alexandria Palace company has filed petition in bankruptcy.

The Alexandria Palace is the well known place of amusement on Mus well Hill.

The Times to-day publishes the full text of the note in which Turkey offered six months armistice, all details of which have already been telegraphed to United States.

The Paris correspondent of that paper commenting thereon says: "The note is conciliatory submissive and almost humble."

The Times in a leading editorial article says Turkey could not possibly have been more conciliatory. The note judiciously abstains from denouncing foreign volunteers as Russians. There is nothing in it which Russia or any other power could reasonably take offence at. The Times further says the fact of the Russians having reverted to demands originally made by England would be encouraging if we could regard with confidence the animus which prompted this course.

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

PORT RICHMOND, PA., Oct. 16.—A row between tramps and drunken miners resulted in the death of two tramps and one miner.

SAVANNAH, Oct. 16.—Total interments yesterday 15, of which 8 were yellow fever victims

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Stein, residing in Hamilton county, committed suicide. The coroner, with his jury, after viewing the [case were thrown from a wagon and one killed.

GREENFIELD, N. H., Oct. 16.—Work upon the Manchester & Keene Railroad has been entirely suspended owing to the inability of the contractors to meet their liabilities, and as a result a large force of workmen are without means and have become so riotous that the Governor was called on for militia, but refusing to grant them, a police force has been sent from Nassau and Manchester.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

The Eastern War--The Interminable Armistice--What Russia Wants--The Peace Prospect not Flattering.--The Clash of Arms.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—The Temps publishes a summary which it believes to be accurate of Prince Gortschakoff's circular to Russian representatives abroad, in reply to Turkey's offer of a six months' armistice. Prince Gortschakoff points out that no durrable peace could proceed from the Turkish proposal. Servia and Montenegro could not be expected to remain so long in a critical condition. He concludes with the statement that Russia is disposed to insist upon an armistice of a month or six weeks, which might be extended if the progress of negotiations rendered it necessary.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The Times' Paris correspondent points to the fact that this is the first time that Russia has clearly accepted solidarity with Servia and Montenegro. In advising them to reject the Turkish propositions she has accepted the responsibility of such refusal.

A Times dispatch from Berlin, Sunday evening, announces that the Russian objections to Turkey's proposal are stated in a calm and argumentative tone, indicating a desire for negotiation. There seems to be no danger of an immediate collision.

The Pesther Lloyd newspaper reports that M Restics, the Servian Prime Minister, has informed the English consul at Belgrade that Servia would consent to an armistice till December 31st.

The Daily News has a special from Belgrade which says that Servia is willing to accept the statu quo, provided the Turks give guarantees for the proper government of Bosnia, but Servia will not consent to any armistice longer than December 31st. If that is rejected now she does not bind herself to accept it at any future time. Prospect of an armistice or peace is not flattering.

A Reuter's telegram from Belgrade says: "It is generally believed here and at Deligrad that the Turks will break through the line of the Drina, upon which they have been continually making attacks for the last few days. Yesterday the Turks attacked the Servian position at Ljubowja for six hours. The attack was repulsed. The Servian General Novossezoff has telegraphed to headquarters announcing that a battle was impending at Javor. An armistice is considered impossible."

RAGUSSA, Oct. 16.—Dervish Pasha having received reinforcements succeeded in repelling the attack on Padgoritza, which was commenced by five battalions of Montenegrins on the 11th inst.

VIENNA, Oct. 16.—The semi-official newspaper, Montag's Review, commenting upon the Porte's proposal of the six months' armistice says: "The armistice is evidently too extended, but the greater period implies the less and the Porte has incontestably fulfilled the requirements of the powers. Anyhow the Turkish proposal does away with all questions of occupation, intervention, naval demonstration or the rupture of diplomatic relations.

WASHINGTON.

South Carolina Matters to be Discussed To-Day.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The President has appointed Waldo Burns Postmaster at Sherman, Texas.

No allusion was made to South Carolina at to-day's Cabinet meeting. It is supposed that Chamberlain's application will be discussed to-morrow when Cameron and Chandler will be present.

NEW YORK.

Death of a Journalist--Caught in the Act--Tweed and Hunt.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Chas. Sedgewick Hunt, a well known journalist, died here yesterday of inflammation of the brain. He was 34 years old.

Two thieves were caught by the police last night in H. B. Claflin & Co's work rooms in the act of packing up five thousand dollars worth of silks and velvets.

It is stated that Hunt, Tweed's companion, sailed with the latter on the Franklin. Both will be surrendered on arrival of the vessel at the quarantine. The Franklin will proceed no further than the quarantine until after examination, when she will sail, after surrendering her prisoner, for Norfolk, Va.

Crop Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The reports to the Department of Agriculture indicate a reduction of the condition of cotton during the past month in the ten principal cotton States from an average of 923 to 827. The October average for these States was 88 in 1875 and 714 in 1874. The decline from September is slight in Georgia, Florida and Mississippi; greater in Louisiana and Arkansas, and greatest in Alabama and Tennessee. There is a small advance in Texas. The figures for the condition of the States are as follows: North Carolina 84; South Carolina 80; Georgia 85; Florida 80; Alabama 70; Mississippi 83; Louisiana 92; Texas 91; Arkansas 86; Tennessee 91. The impairment of the crop prospects has been caused by the equinoctial storm in North Carolina, drought and rust in Georgia, the caterpillar in Florida and Alabama, the boll worm in Arkansas and frost in Tennessee. The caterpillar is confined to the southern portion of the Gulf States. Its depredations are most severe in Alabama and in most of the infested districts its re-production was too late to destroy more than the top crop.

Probabilities.

For the Atlantic and Gulf States generally lower barometer, winds mostly from southwest, except northerly along the east gulf coast, and warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, will prevail.

LOCAL MATTER.

In Town.

Mr. Sam. Herren, of Haywood, enrolling clerk to the last Assembly, passed through en route east on business connected with the Baptist Church of his community, Thursday. Mr. H. will be a candidate for reelection this winter, and his many friends in the west will be greatly pleased at his success.—Asheville Citizen.

Mr. Herren is now in this city, canvassing in behalf of his church. We commend him to those of the people of Raleigh who do not know him, and commend his object also, as a worthy one. Mr. Herren brings glorious news from the west. He says that Vance will carry his county by from 500 to 600. He will carry every single county west of the ridge, and in every one will gain on the Merrimon vote. Mr. H. says that our State ticket will cross the ridge coming east with 2,500 majority, while Gen. Clingman, an old and sagacious politician, says that it will leave the west with 3,000 majority. The drubbings which Capt. Jarvis gave to Bill Smith all over the mountains, were productive of great good, and Maj. Engelhard's canvass has also been highly effective. All doubt as to how the election in this State is going, has been cleared up.

Flag Presentation.

The Star says that the ladies of Wilmington will present a handsome flag to the Wilmington Light Infantry upon the eve of its departure for the State Fair. The flag cost $90. The presentation speech will be made by Capt. John W. Dunham, and Capt. M. P. Taylor will respond on behalf of the company. The flag is five by six feet in dimensions, made of double silk, blue on one side and white on the reverse, and trimmed with gilt fringe.

Appointments of Capt. Davis and Col. Young.

At Dr. Buchanan's, Chatham county, October 17.

Johnston's Store, Chatham county, October 18.

Special Trains.

We are glad to notice that our railroads are doing all in their power to further the success of our fair. Trains have been arranged to suit the convenience of the people, and rates have been lowered in order to suit their pockets.

On the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad an excursion train will run between this place and Warrenton on each day of the week, commencing to-day. The train leaves Warrenton at 6 A. M. Returning the train leaves this depot at 4:30 P. M. and arrives at Warrenton at 8:06 P. M.

On the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroad a special train will run between the head of the road and Cameron, connecting with the mail at the last mentioned place, which will place visitors from that section here in full time to enjoy the day and enable them to return by the regular train late in the afternoon.

On the North Carolina Railroad there is to be excursion trains between this city and Greensboro, tomorrow and next day. The time for leaving Greensboro is 6:20 A. M., arriving here at 11:30 A. M.; returning leave at 5:05 P. M. and arrive at Greensboro at 9:50 P. M. The fare for the round trip is $1.70, which includes the price of admission into the fair grounds.

A Dog's Singular Escape.

Mr. J. Iredell Johnston has a white and black setter dog named Bugs, which made a very singular escape one night last week, from a sudden and ignominious death. It appears that some time during the night the dog got after a cat (he is always chasing cats) which jumped upon the platform around the well. The dog followed it, and the well being uncovered, as ill-luck would have it, Bugs went in. The depth of the well is 50 feet. Next morning early a servant went to the well and heard a noise below. After it had become light he discovered that it was a dog. Another servant was sent down, and Bugs was found holding his head above the water. He was tied in the well bucket and drawn up, and was discovered to have received no injury at all. He was very stiff, and his toenails were worn to the quick by his efforts to climb the wall, but otherwise was all right, and is again as well as ever. And this is the story of how Bugs Johnston went after wool and got shorn. Put it in the spelling books.
